

The unjust reduction to the lay state of Bishop Claudio Gatti

On October 18, 2002, one of the blackest and saddest pages in the history of the Church was written. The "last blow of satan" against bishop Claudio Gatti consisted of the following: Those who fight against the Eucharist, unjustly condemned the bishop ordained by God, Claudio Gatti, by reducing him to the lay state.

The three ecclesiastics who committed this diabolical plan were those who at that time were Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger, Bishop Tarcisio Bertone and Cardinal Camillo Ruini. The latter saying against Bishop Claudio Gatti: "I will take revenge and I will crush him."

At that time, Cardinal Ratzinger took advantage of the precarious health conditions of Pope John Paul II, to make him sign, without him knowing it, the decree of dismissal from the clerical state of Bishop Claudio Gatti, during the conciliar audience of 18 October 2002.

The dismissal from the clerical state can occur ex-officio, that is, without the consent of the interested party, through a request of the bishop to the Pontiff, but it cannot be established by particular law (can. 1317) and, since it is a penalty perpetual, not even by decree (can. 1342 § 2). It must be declared only by judicial means, by a tribunal of three or five judges (can. 1425).

Cardinal Ruini, with the letter "prot. 1455/02", delivered to the home of Bishop Claudio Gatti on November 16, 2002, he simply informed the bishop that he had been reduced to the lay state in accordance with the letter "prot. 174/95-15938"

In accordance with this, the letter "prot. 174/95-15938" would be the pontifical decree of the reduction to the lay state of Bishop Claudio Gatti signed by Pope John Paul II on October 16, 2002, without the Pope himself knew its content.

Cardinal Ruini at least should have attached to his communication a certified photocopy of the letter "prot. 174/95-15938", processed by the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith to the Vicariate of Rome, but he did not.

The executors of this diabolical plan, not knowing what crime to accuse Bishop Claudio Gatti of, did not place any crime.

To reduce to the lay state a priest it is necessary to have committed one of the following serious crimes: to become apostate, heretical, schismatic; desecrate the Eucharist; use physical violence against the Pope; commit certain grave sins against the sixth commandment; contained in canons 1364, 1367, 1370 § 1, 1387, 1394 § 1, 1395 of the Code of Canon Law.

The bishop ordained by God, Claudio Gatti, never did any of this. Furthermore, the bishop was denied the right to defense.

Since the bishop did not commit any of the crimes provided for in the Code of Canon Law, Cardinal Ratzinger, Cardinal Ruini and Bishop Bertone, architects of the reduction to the lay state of Bishop Claudio Gatti, have committed a moral act illicit and legally invalid, because they have abused their authority, have acted against the Code of Canon Law, and above all, by condemning an innocent person, have seriously lacked charity and offended the truth.

Bishop Claudio Gatti will soon be rehabilitated within the Church and the works of the enemies of the Eucharist will be condemned.

Appendix:

Jesus himself said about the last blow of satan (the reduction to the lay state of the Bishop Claudio Gatti):

"They have involved the Holy Father, although he does not know it, because they make him sign the letters without knowing the content. The Pope has signed, not the letter that has come to you, but the document that remains in the Vatican, in the Vicariate" (Letter of God of 11.17.2002).

In the Marian apparition “Mother of the Eucharist” on November 16, 2002, the day on which the communication from Cardinal Ruini reached the Bishop, Our Lady allowed Bishop Claudio to ask him some questions:

Our Lady - Excellency, you can ask me what you want.

Bishop - I'm interested in knowing if there really is a document signed by the Pope.

Our Lady - The document signed with deception is there, but the Pope has not read it. He has signed many letters, without ever reading them, because they bring him the letters already written and he signs them without reading them. The Pope has nothing to do with Satan's blow, he signed the decree without knowing what he was signing, if he had read it he would not have signed it.

Bishop - Who are responsible for satan's blow?

Our Lady - It is Messrs. Ratzinger, Ruini and Bertone who have tried to make believe that the decision comes from the Holy Father. The Pope is not well and they take advantage of it. They feel big and powerful and want to take revenge on you, because you bother them a lot.

Bishop - But can't God stop these ecclesiastics?

Our Lady - Yes and it will, but not immediately, because the blow of satan will still have to last for peace in the world.

(Letter of God of November 16, 2002)

Appendix 2:

Since the signing of the decree had been done under deceit, without the Pope knowing what he was signing and since with this decree the Bishop ordained by God was unjustly condemned, the Lord ordered Our Lady to take this document away from the lords of the Church.

For the Vicariate and the Vatican, this document was the only element they had in hand to demonstrate that the decision to reduce the Bishop to the lay state was the Pope's and therefore unappealable.

This document will reappear when God wills and will be delivered into the hands of the Pope who, according to God's plans, will have to revive the Church.

The removal of the pontifical document from the hands of powerful ecclesiastics is one of God's first interventions to rehabilitate in the Church the Bishop whom He himself ordained.

Presumably for this reason, Cardinal Ruini never showed Bishop Claudio Gatti the pontifical decree of reduction to the lay state, nor did he provide the bishop with a certified copy of it, since the Vicariate did not have it in its possession.

Appendix 3:

We are sure that if the Pope John Paul II had known that the letter to be signed was the condemnation of the bishop Claudio Gatti, he would have never signed it for the following reasons:

- 1) The Pope knew the bishop and the seer, because meeting them, he addressed them saying: "You are those of Our Lady".

- 2) Many times Marisa was in bilocation at the Pope to talk with him about some important problems of the Church.

- 3) The Pope recited the prayers dictated by the Mother of the Eucharist.

4) The Holy Father adored the Eucharist, given by Our Lady to Marisa and subsequently brought by Don Claudio into the Vatican on December 7, 1997.

5) John Paul II in the general audience of June 13, 2001 finished his catechesis saying: "May Mary, Mother of the Eucharist, protect you all"; this invocation was then censored by his collaborators and removed of the website of the Vatican.

6) The Pope's secretary, through a common polish friend, asked Marisa to pray for the Pope's health and sent her, as a sign of gratefulness, a picture reproducing Jesus' face.
